Will I be able to open a EUR, GBP, AUD, CAD or JPY MetaTrader accounts?

For the time being we are only opening MT4 USD Mini accounts.

How do I register for a demo account?

Demo accounts are available at this time. Attention and resources are currently being put towards live trading. We plan to have demo accounts activated when we feel confident that the program can handle sufficient volume. At that time demo accounts will be available to all clients who download the software on the MetaTrader home page. (30 day is free)

Will hedging be automatically enabled?

Yes.

Will I be able to download the software on my Macintosh computer?

The MT4 software will only be available for Windows based applications.

Will I have access to Market Update Analysis Program?

Yes. All MANDUS INVEST live account holders have access to Market Update Analysis

Will I be able to trade in 1K lots?

The minimum trade size with MANDUS INVEST is 10K.

Will I be able to manage other people's accounts?

Initially MANDUS INVEST will not be offering the MT4 MultiTerminal software. This is a feature that we may be offering in the future.

Will fractional pips be offered on MT4?

Yes.

Will one-click/double-click features be available on MT4?

No. This feature is only available through the FX Trading Station.

Will MT4 allow for partial fills on large orders.

No. This is a limitation of the MetaTrader software.

Will there be order size limits on MT4?

Yes. There will be a 2 million order size limit (2000K, 200 mini lots, 20 standard lots). MANDUS INVEST is imposing this limit in anticipation of a higher rejection rate as the MetaTrader software has limitations which prevent it from incorporating partial fills.
